Trust

Every day we do things that require trust, from crossing the street, to choosing leaders, to loving our families and friends. Without some level of trust none of these is possible. Mistrust pervades our society at every level, and it's not hard to see why. What is one to do? What is trust, and how can we develop it? Do we even want to? This service will be followed by an informal discussion of how things are going in the wide world of Unitarian Universalism. Presented by Dr. Joshua Searle - White, Congregational Life Staff of the Pacific Central District of which our Fellowship is one of 38 member congregations in California, Nevada and Hawaii. Joining us for this service will be special musical guests from the Unitarian Universalist congregation in San Mateo.

May 10th 9:30 a.m.

Mother Earth and Other Mothers

Bring a flower to share this morning as we celebrate the Earth that is our mother, along with the mothers, and others who have "mothered" us along the way.

May 17th 9:30 a.m.

Coming of Age

This Sunday we will celebrate the Coming of Age of two youth from our congregation. During the past year, these young people participated in a service project for the community as well as a service project for our Fellowship. They have also attended three Coming of Age district retreats designed to challenge them and give them an opportunity to reflect on who they are and how they want to "show up" in the world. As a principle focal point of the service, the youth will share their Credo statements - a statement of what is important to them - with all of us. Come celebrate this special milestone in their lives.

11:15 a.m. All are welcome to join us for the Semi Annual Congregational Business Meeting of the Fellowship in the Chapel. Childcare will be provided.

May 24th 9:30 a.m.

And All That Matters

*"The sound of a bullhorn calls us together.
The sound of silence calls us to voice.
The sound of weeping calls us to the streets.
What is the sound that calls us to hear one another?"*

The words of Dr. Sharon Fennema and L. Annie Foerster call us to remember what is happening in the streets of our cities and to search our hearts to know how to respond.

May 31st 9:30 a.m.

A Memorial Service

Please join UUFS members Peggy Stephan and Dave Flack for a service that memorializes those who have died while answering our country's call to serve.
